

FRIENDS OF THE VOORTREKKER MONUMENT AND OF BLOOD RIVER SUPPORTERS CLUB

Your information will be confidential

Why such a club?

To involve members of the community in the Voortrekker Monument and Blood River Heritage Sites to raise additional funds.

Who can become members?

Any person who has paid the membership fees for the financial year. No provision is made for patrons or non-paying honorary members. Membership can be renewed annually and lasts from 1 March or thereafter until the end of February of the following year.

What does it cost?

For individual members: R250 per year
For lifetime membership: R6 000,00

What will the money be used for?

To contribute to the financing of certain projects and the optimal utilization of the facilities of the Voortrekker Monument and Blood River Heritage Sites.

Who is the management of the club?

The Managing Director acts ex officio as convenor of the Club and accepts responsibility for the effective management and functioning of the Club.

What do members get in exchange?

- A special certificate and lapel button (once only).
- A special membership card to obtain free entry for the holder of the card and one sedan vehicle per vehicle to the site. (All other entry fees are still applicable for guests.)
- 10% discount for the Sunday afternoon buffet at the Monument Restaurant for a member plus one person, excluding beverages (special membership card must be presented).
- Invitations to the following at a reduced price:
  - Special meals and other functions at reduced prices.
  - Guided tours to related facilities and institutions.
  - Other events organised from time to time to raise funds for the Voortrekker Monument Heritage Site or Blood

Life-time members may (on request) become a member of the Heritage Foundation and in so doing be eligible for election on the Boards. To be eligible for election, the initial fee to join the Heritage Foundation will not be necessary but members must still pay the annual fee of R684.

Are any other rights obtained?

No, membership is a voluntary association and members have no direct influence on the management of the Voortrekker Monument Heritage Site. Advice or input from members will, however, be appreciated.
